

The Las Vegas Valley Gas Bag

Vol 1 Issue 1 – June 24th, 2011

Welcome

This is the first edition of what will probably be a sporadic publication concerning ballooning in the Las Vegas Valley. We just completed our move from Meetup to our new home on the web at www.save-ga.org and are working to restore and improve on what we had previously. In line with that goal, we're cranking out the first edition of our 'Newsletter' (i.e. what you're reading). There is no set form, function, or purpose herein, so take it for what it's worth (less than a cup of coffee I'm sure). It's written for the same reason we fly, to have fun!

Recent Flights and Events Past

Well, the winds haven't been kind thus far, so there hasn't been as much flying as we would like, but we've managed to enjoy a few flights so far in 2011. I'll detail them in a future issue.
